PC-WARE: Current development in affiliate COMPAREX Schweiz AG

Leipzig, 15 April 2010 – At COMPAREX Schweiz AG, in which PC-Ware Information Technologies AG (DE0006910904/ WKN 691090) (“Company”) holds a 70% share, considerable parts of the staff, management included, have given proper notice of termination of employment on the occasion of an employee meeting that had been spontaneously convened by management. Here, pre-written notices as well as new employment agreements that only needed to be signed were distributed to the staff members by the representatives of Bison Holding AG. Bison Holding AG is the minority shareholder of COMPAREX Schweiz AG. It is an affiliate of Fenaco, a group of companies of the Swiss agricultural economy. The management board has initiated investigations as to whether the action by management of COMPAREX Schweiz AG and Bison HOLDING AG represents an unfair conduct detrimental to the company and whether legal steps under civil and criminal law should be taken. The period of notice for the staff is several months. The continuation of business operations has been ensured for the time being. The CEO of COMPAREX Schweiz AG, Oliver Schalch, has been suspended.
